A Big Book by a Big Man

MODERN DEMOCRACIES, by James Viscount Bryce, author of "The American Commonwealth." This is Lord Bryce's most important work since "The American Commonwealth." As in that great work he made the finest and most sympathetic study of our form of government, so in this new work he makes a similar study, based on facts and personal observations of many years of democracy in the world at large. The work is divided into three parts. Part I deals with the elements of all democracies—education, public opinion, the press, etc. Part II studies actual democracies in their working, especially the six great democracies of the modern world. Part III contains the author's own conclusions as to the present and future of democratic government.

Truly a book for every citizen, two volumes, $10.50 for the set.

MAYFAIR TO MOSCOW, Clara Sheridan's Diary—America's best known diary when "The New York Times" recently featured on its first pages five short installments of the now famous diary. But these newspaper articles told only about the trip to sculp Lenine and Trotsky. The full diary gives little pictures of the author's intimate life in England before and after her great adventure, and is brought up to date, even including some of her American impressions. With beautiful full page reproductions of busts done by Mrs. Sheridan and other interesting illustrations.

GOV. ALLEN RAPS LABOR LEADERS

Says Industrial Court Is Opposed Because It Menaces Their Jobs.

By the Associated Press. CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 26.—Gov. Allen of Kansas, speaking last night to the Harvard University Liberal Club from the same rostrum that Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, used a month ago, reiterated his charges that union labor leaders opposed the Kansas industrial relations court and the law behind it because they realized that if government may provide industrial justice, "it will be no longer necessary for the workmen to pay out of his pocket a lot of hard-fought, soft-handed radicals who live off labor."

He said that "the business of secretaries of war for labor has become a well paid profession" quoted from a recent compilation to show that 100,000 paid secretaries of labor unions receive $30,000,000 a year from the slender pockets of laboring men," and added: "President Gompers and his 150,000 paid assistants realize that if government may bring justice into industry there is no longer a market for the tin god that they have been willing to labor in the United States for the past forty years."

Gov. Allen characterized as un-American the doctrine by which he said union leaders held "that craftsmanship, most expert, which has learned the practical definition of 'slacker'."

"The closed shop has overplayed its game," he said. "It has introduced into this country the un-American principle of putting as little as possible into life and taking as much as possible out of life."

U. S. AGENTS FAIL TO GET OCEAN LINER UNLOADED

Martha Washington Remains Helpless at Buenos Aires—No Adjustment in Sight.

BUENOS AIRES, April 26.—Immediate resumption of conferences between United States consular and Argentine officials and the Argentine government relative to the lifting of the boycott against the Munson liner Martha Washington is not anticipated. Efforts on the part of American representatives to induce the government to nullify the dockers' boycott or to require labor to unload the vessel have been futile. The only solution offered by the Argentine government is mediation between the working union and the American consulate, which plan has been categorically rejected.

Reports from Washington indicating that an impression exists there that difficulties will soon be cleared away have caused surprise in this city. Advice from the American capital, stating that Argentina had referred the controversy to a "conciliation board," were mystifying here, as it is not known that such a board is in existence. Rejection by American officials of any form of conciliation or mediation is considered as precluding reference of the case to any such organization as the conciliation board.

MISSION SENT TO CHITA.

Goes to Report on Conditions, Without Diplomatic Status.

James P. Abbott, commercial attaché, and Maj. W. T. Davis, military attaché of the American embassy at Tokio, have been sent to Chita, the seat of the new Siberian government, purely as observers. It was said yesterday by the State Department.

The Chita government has asked recognition by the United States, but it was stated that the American mission was without diplomatic status and that the purpose of the visit was to report on conditions.
